2. Appointment as broker

The Client hereby appoints SICO as its broker, whereby SICO shall, upon instructions duly received from the Authorized Person(s) of the Client, execute transactions in the relevant Exchange(s) for and on behalf of the Client. SICO shall comply with the present and future directives of the relevant Exchange(s) in regard to execution of transactions. Services provided hereby are non-discretionary and SICO will therefore not affect any transaction without an instruction from the Client, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. SICO, in its sole discretion, may appoint sub-brokers to execute brokerage transactions in any Exchange other than the Bahrain Bourse.

3. Our Service Terms and Conditions

- 3.1 This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions on which SICO will provide and execute non-discretionary brokerage services of securities and bonds listed on the relevant Exchange(s). SICO is regulated by the Central Bank of Bahrain, the Bahrain Bourse and other Applicable Market Rules of the Kingdom of Bahrain.
- 3.2 There are no generally applicable restrictions on the types of investments to which SICO's services extend. However, SICO may in its discretion and without giving reasons decline to accept any particular instructions or to advise the Client on a particular investment. In the event that SICO is not prepared to accept instruction for a particular investment SICO will notify the Client immediately and will confirm this as soon as possible thereafter in writing. If SICO accepts the Client's instructions, SICO will use its best reasonable endeavours to carry them out. However, SICO will not be liable for any loss or expense the Client incurs if SICO is unable to do so because there is a delay or change in market conditions before the transaction is affected. In addition, in certain instances, the relevant Exchange(s) may restrict, cancel or reverse a transaction. SICO will not be liable for any loss or expense the Client incurs in such instances.
- 3.3 The Client will be liable to SICO even for transactions entered into by the Client on behalf of third parties, unless such third party has separately and directly entered into a contractual agreement with SICO. Furthermore, under the Applicable Market Rules of the Kingdom of Bahrain, the Client is obliged to inform SICO and SICO is obliged to obtain all information regarding such third party(s) from the Client. SICO shall not undertake any such transactions unless all relevant Client and/or third party information and documentation has been satisfactorily reviewed by it.
- 3.4. SICO will not be responsible for the Client's investment decisions. The Client agrees that it shall use its own professional judgment when making investment decisions. The Client further acknowledges that there are certain risks associated with trading and agrees to accept the risks associated with its investment decisions.
- 3.5. SICO may enter into transactions for Clients in non-readily realizable investments (OTC Securities – IPO's – Private Equities, Etc.). These are investments in which the market is limited or could become so. These investments can be difficult to trade and it can be difficult to evaluate the proper market price for them. The Client must notify SICO in writing if the Client does not wish to be informed in respect of such investments.

Initial:

- 3.6. Where SICO is acting as the client's nominee for a Security, the Client authorizes SICO to represent that particular security at ordinary and extraordinary general meetings, without obligation on SICO to do so. Voting rights will be exercised by SICO in the manner it deems best, unless the Client provides special instructions. The Client hereby absolves SICO from any liability for voting such shares at such meetings, as long as SICO acts in good faith. However, SICO shall in no event be liable for the consequences of its vote, whether direct or indirect.
- 3.7. The Client acknowledges that the Exchange may regulate transactions executed for or on behalf of "controlling shareholders". The Client undertakes to inform SICO in the event that the Client is or becomes a controlling shareholder, as defined in the Applicable Market Rules.

4. Safe Custody

The Client hereby appoints SICO as Custodian of Securities held in the Account. Securities in this context refers to shares, debt instruments and other securities owned by the Client and maintained in dematerialized or physical form, or any certificates, receipts, evidencing or representing the Client's rights and interests therein. SICO, in its sole discretion may appoint sub-custodians to safe keep securities acquired in the relevant Exchange(s).

5. Nominee

- 5.1. The Client hereby appoints SICO as Nominal Owner of Securities held in the Account for the purposes of the relevant Exchange(s) (if applicable) and authorizes SICO to execute transactions in SICO's name (when applicable) on behalf of the Client. SICO in acting as Nominee shall register Securities purchased on behalf of the Client in SICO's name, however, all rights and liabilities shall remain for the account of the Client. By authorizing SICO as Nominee, the Client automatically authorizes SICO to be the Custodian for Securities registered in SICO's name. It should be noted that in GCC markets, the nominal ownership of all clients for any particular Security would be pooled together in SICO's name. The Client acknowledges that the risk of such pooling is that the counterparty might liquidate the entire position in any or all Securities held with such counterparty in order to recover amounts due from SICO or another client. In such event, the client will be entitled to the client protection rules as set out in clause 20 below.
- 5.2. Non-transferability of shares bought under the nominee agreement.
 Shares bought on the Exchange under the Nominee agreement for the Client cannot be transferred to any other account/ broker, since these Securities are registered in SICO's name and transfer to another name is not subsequently possible. Should the Client wish to terminate his relationship with SICO, Securities bought on the Exchange under this Agreement will have to be sold at market or at any other reasonable price the Client suggests. These transactions will be treated in the same manner as any other trades (i.e. confirmations, commissions, and settlement) and charges incurred in this respect will be for the account of the Client. Such restriction does not apply to the Bahrain Bourse or any other Exchange where the Securities would be registered in the Client's name.

Initial:

5.3. Additional Undertaking

Where SICO is acting as Custodian or as Nominee for a Security, SICO shall receive cash dividends or interest income on behalf of the Client for that particular Security and deposit the same for the account of the Client, unless the Client instructs otherwise.

6. General Terms and Conditions

6.1 Agency: SICO will, according to the Applicable Market Rules and for purposes of this Agreement, and in the absence of any agreement stating otherwise, continue to treat the Client as its client, even where the Client has disclosed its principal client to SICO.

6.2. Best Execution: SICO will provide the Client with the best price reasonably available to it in the market at the time the Client's trade is executed and will do so with utmost due diligence.

6.3. Client's Own Judgment: When rendering service, SICO expects the Client to rely on its own judgment. Any advice the Client may receive from SICO will be given in good faith, but SICO shall have no responsibility for any loss, liability or cost which the Client may incur relying on SICO's advice, including, without limitation, loss of capital or principal amounts invested by the Client.

6.4. Research

- i. Research reports may be sent to the Client from time to time for the purpose of the Client's information only, but such reports shall not constitute investment advice or an offer for the purchase or sale of investments.
- ii. SICO will provide research reports to Clients when they are available, but SICO is not under any obligation to do so.
- iii. SICO will exercise due diligence to ensure the research is true and not misleading at the time it is published. However, in conducting any research, SICO shall be relying on information produced by third party sources and therefore, SICO shall not make, nor be deemed to have made, any warranty about its accuracy or completeness. If the information changes after the Client receives the research report and SICO, for any reason, is unable to communicate the change to the Client, SICO will take no responsibility or liability for any investment decision made by the Client in reliance on such research.
- iv. With regards to SICO's research, please be advised that SICO does not act as the Client's professional advisors and that SICO does not provide confirmation or guarantees with respect to the consequences of acting upon the research provided, and the Client should use its own investigation, judgment and analysis especially on verbal recommendations.
- v. SICO's estimations, projections, forecasts and opinions in its research will be based on assumptions which SICO considers to be reasonable at the time SICO issues the research.

Initial:

6.5. Conflict of Interest

SICO invests in Securities listed on the Exchange both for itself and its clients, and SICO also acts as market maker in relation to certain Securities listed on the Exchange. As a result, there could be instances where SICO is on the other side of the transactions executed for the Client, or where the Client is purchasing Securities for which SICO is acting as a market maker. In such circumstances, SICO will comply with the regulations of the CBB and the Bahrain Bourse and will always strive to execute such transactions on an arms' length basis in order to avoid any conflict of interest between itself and the Client.

6.6. Confidentiality

SICO will treat all information received from the Client as confidential. However, SICO may disclose any information that concerns the Client if the disclosure is necessary to enable the services contemplated by this Agreement, or in the event that SICO is required to do so by the Applicable Market Rules.

6.7. Modes of communication

- i. Client's instructions may be verbal or in writing and both shall have the same effect.
- ii. SICO records Clients' telephone calls. These recordings will be SICO's sole property and may be used as evidence in the event of a dispute. Those Clients who do not give written instructions are urged to contact SICO personnel on landline phone numbers only and to desist from contacting them on their mobile phones. In case of dispute, the Client will be entitled to access these telephone records and SICO will provide all necessary assistance in retrieving such information. Please be informed that telephone recordings are retained for a period of 3 months or longer as deemed appropriate.
- iii. Any notice from SICO to the Client may be served by courier, mail, fax or email. Any correspondences addressed and sent to the Client's last known address will be deemed to have been received by the Client personally (a) in the event of courier service on the next full working day after delivery of the correspondence to the courier; (b) in the event of mail, three working days after postage; (c) in the event of fax, upon transmission; and (d) in the event of e-mail, upon transmission. Any discrepancy should be reported by the Client directly to the Client Relations Unit of SICO within five business days from the day it was deemed to be received or it shall be deemed conclusive.

7. Instructions

- 7.1 SICO will act on any instruction, whether oral or written, which SICO reasonably believes to be received from the Client's registered contact details. If SICO is in doubt about any instruction(s), SICO may ask the Client to confirm the instruction(s) in writing before SICO acts on it. SICO shall keep its own written record of all instructions received from the Client and in the event that the Client fails to confirm any instruction(s) in writing, SICO's own written record and/or recorded telephone calls shall be conclusive evidence of such instructions and shall be binding on the Client. The Client shall release SICO from any liability and hold SICO harmless from and

Initial:

- 7.2 All instructions to SICO should include the following information and may be confirmed by email/fax:

- 7.3 SICO will accept the Client's orders by telephone, but it may require such orders to be subsequently confirmed in writing. SICO may, without being obliged to do so, request from the person giving the oral instructions specific information in order to establish the person's identity with greater certainty; the Client however agrees to indemnify SICO against all proceedings, loss, damages, claims, costs (including legal costs) or demands, if any unauthorized person should illegally or without proper authority, use the Client's name and the Account and its number, or if there is any error included in the instructions (unless such losses are the direct result of SICO's negligence, fraud or wilful default) .
- 7.4 In all the above cases, the Client accepts in advance any transactions executed on the basis of instructions given by telephone, and acknowledges as justified all payments charged to the Account.
- 7.5 If SICO received a cancellation of an order from the Client prior to the market opening, the cancellation will take effect immediately. If cancellation or amendment is received after the Client order was placed on the Exchange during the market hours, SICO can cancel the order or amend it, but only to the extent it has not already been executed. Once a cancel order has been issued, the original order cannot be retrieved.

8. Execution

- 8.1 Under the Applicable Market Rules, all orders shall be treated equally for all clients. SICO is obliged to treat the Client's orders with utmost discretion.
- 8.2 In some cases, the Exchange or the Governmental Regulator may cancel transactions executed on the Exchange. SICO will immediately report such actions to the Client with no obligation to compensate the Client for any loss caused.
- 8.3 The Clients' orders may be executed partially or fully, starting from date of receipt of orders up to the receipt of cancellation

Initial:

9. Deal Confirmations and Reporting

SICO shall use its best endeavours to confirm the deals it had concluded on behalf of the Client, by email or any other means of communication on the same day of the deal in respect of transactions executed on the Bahrain Bourse, and as soon as possible in respect of transactions executed on Exchanges other than the Bahrain Bourse. Where, for reasons outside SICO's control, SICO is unable to confirm the deal on the same day of its conclusion, SICO shall provide the Client with such confirmation as soon as is reasonably practicable following the conclusion of the deal.

10. SICO's Commission Charges and Expenses

- 10.1 As a consideration for performing its services hereunder, SICO shall be entitled to receive commissions and be reimbursed for expenses paid by SICO on behalf of the Client to execute transactions. In the event of any change in circumstances of any existing applicable laws, or introduction of new laws that could govern the remuneration of this Agreement, such amendments would be applied on top of the existing agreed upon commercial terms and borne by the Client.

Initial:

To the extent that any exposure limits are set by SICO and/or the Exchange, the Client agrees that such exposure limits shall be binding on the Client and the Portfolio.
- 11.2 SICO accepts funds and settlements only in Bahraini Dinar and payable only in Bahrain, unless otherwise agreed at the time of opening this Account.
- 11.3 In case of settling transactions in currencies other than the Bahraini Dinar, SICO shall apply exchange rates in its customary manner on the basis of the best rates obtainable at the time using reasonable efforts and without recourse to the Client. The Client agrees that delays and defaults will entail further interest on such overdue payments along with any penalty amounts that may be levied by the relevant Governmental Regulator or the Exchange.
- v. The Client acknowledges that market practices, insolvency and legal regimes applicable in the various jurisdictions in which the Exchange(s) is/are located may differ from each other and this will have an effect on the treatment of the Client's assets.
